HOMELSS MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Mr. Irving S. Cobb, the famous newspaper correspondent, testifies what he saw in Belgium in the following telegram:

"I only wish I had the power to write lines that would make the American people see the situation as it is now—which would make them understand how infinitely worse that situation must become during the next few months."

"In Belgium I saw homeless men, women and children by the thousands and hundreds of thousands. Many of them had been prosperous. A few had wealth and practically all of them had been comfortable. Now, with scarcely an exception, they stood upon one common plane of poverty and misery. They had lost their homes, their farms, their workshops, their livings and their means of making livings."

"I saw them tramping aimlessly along wind swept, rain washed roads, fleeing from burning and devastated buildings. I saw them sleeping in open fields, upon the cold, miry earth, with no cover and no shelter. I saw them herded together in the towns and cities—existing God alone knows how. I saw them, ragged, furtive, scarecrows, prowling in the shattered ruins of their houses, seeking salvage where none was to be found. I saw them living like beasts of the field upon such things as the beasts would reject. I saw them staggering from weariness, and the weakness of hunger. I saw all of these sights repeated and multiplied."

WHEN WE MAKE OUR PORTRAITS OF YOUR CHILDREN

The naturalness of expression is manifest in the picture. The happy little smile, the innocent looks that you know so well are a part of the portrait. A pleasure in the present and happy reminders of babyhood in years to come.

We trust you can spare a few moments to visit our studio, which we feel assured will convince you that a sitting will be worth while.

SAD ACCIDENT

Col. Charles L. Rosenham Has His Limb Broken By Coasters In Market Street Yesterday.

Colonel Charles L. Rosenham, local superintendent of the Western & Southern Life Insurance Company, yesterday afternoon about 12:15 o'clock, was badly injured. Colored boys coasting down the hill ran into him, tripped him up, and in the fall he suffered a broken hip.

His stepson, Dr. A. R. Quigley, was summoned, and Mr. Rosenham was at once taken to Hayswood Hospital where the broken limb was set. He was not otherwise injured.

This morning Mrs. Rosenham informed The Ledger that her husband was resting well and that, as his limb was not broken at the thigh, it is expected that he will entirely recover from his injury in two months.

The genial Colonel has the sympathy of his legion of friends who all trust he will not be permanently disabled from this sudden visitation of trouble.
